HAWAII UTILITY CORPORATIONS WELL RUN, SAYS COMMISSION

Board's Report for Work of Second Year Is Sent to the Governor

The second annual report of the Public Utilities Commission, now in the hands of the governor, calls attention to the fact that since March 27, 1914, the board has conducted its business with a bare quorum of two members, J. N. S. Williams acting as chairman.

The reduction in the board's membership was brought about by the resignation on March 24 of E. A. Mott-Smith, then chairman. Since that time no chairman has been appointed by the governor. The report, however, carries no recommendations for the appointment of a new chairman.

Referring to jurisdiction, the report points out that the influence which the Public Utilities Commission of Hawaii might exert upon carriers within the limits of the territory is largely reduced by reason of the exclusive jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"It is to be stated, however," the report continues, "that all the railroads within the territory pay their fees as prescribed by statute, and have conferred, in instances, with the public utilities commission of Hawaii which has rendered assistance in certain directions. So it may be said that while the Public Utilities Commission of Hawaii has no mandatory powers over common carriers doing business in the Territory of Hawaii which are within the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, still it is in a position to advise the common carriers."

NOTICE TO INTENDING BIDDERS.

Notice is hereby given that proposals will be received by the speaker of the House of Representatives until 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, February 23, 1915, for printing the Journal of the House of Representatives of the Session of 1915 in book form, as follows:

Galley proofs in duplicate to be delivered within two days after receipt of copy of said Journal by the successful bidder; page proofs to be delivered within two days after return of said galley proofs.

Forty volumes to be bound in full sheep, the same being lettered in gold; the balance in Buckram, with lettering; one hundred copies to be delivered within fifteen days after receipt of the index by the successful bidder, and the balance to be delivered within fifteen days thereafter. carriers and the public on questions that may arise between them."

Benefits of Commission's Work.

As to the usefulness of the commission, the report says:

"There has been some public comment to the effect that the commission accomplishes little, and that the money which is spent for its maintenance and operation might very well be saved to the people, therefore it appears well to point out that the funds under which the commission operates are provided by the public utilities of the territory, and do not, in any sense of the term, come out of the current revenue provided by public taxation.

"One of the functions of this commission is to investigate alleged abuses occurring in the transaction of business which is more or less monopolistic, and in which competition, whereby the public may be assured of proper treatment, has no scope. A good deal of investigation has been done in a quiet way and an examination of the exhibits, which will show in detail negotiations which have taken place, will convince those doubtful that a good deal has been accomplished in the smoothing over of difficulties and misunderstanding between public utility corporations and those they serve.

"Nor should it be forgotten that while during the existence of the commission no strikes or disputes between employers and employees have taken place in connection with the business of public utility corporations, and should such unfortunate occurrences be precipitated in the future, the Public Utilities Commission of Hawaii would be in position to exercise great influence for good in negotiating between contending parties. It is believed that in this direction lies one of the greatest opportunities for the commission to prove its value."

No Legislation Proposed.

"In conclusion, the report says: "It is believed the powers of the commission should be used for the purpose of mediating between the public utility corporations and the public only when good and sufficient cause for investigating has been shown. Complaints properly filed and sponsored, and therefore the commission has no new legislation to propose. It is believed that the acts which brought it into existence clothe it with sufficient power for the purposes intended by the legislature of 1914."

"The commission believes that the public utility corporations of Hawaii are conducted in a liberal and public-spirited manner, which is to a great extent proven by the absence of substantial complaints, and by the facts brought forth in the investigation of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Ltd."
